PRESIDENT

In a real estate career spanning nearly 34 years, Tom Castle has been involved in every aspect of commercial real estate. As President of SullivanHayes Brokerage – the premier retail real estate brokerage firm – Tom oversees the brokerage organization, providing leadership and guidance to the firm’s complement of independent real estate brokers, as well as directing the efforts of the research and marketing group and administrative staff.

Tom started with SullivanHayes in 1985, helping to build a specialized brokerage firm which grew to be the leader in retail tenant and project representation.

Tom continues to personally handle Target’s expansion in Colorado and Utah as well as other retail expansion programs and select property and development projects with local and national developers.

Tom’s commitment to and enthusiasm for the retail real estate industry and Colorado continue to create opportunities for the firm’s clients and partners.
