BIO

Elizabeth (Liz) Morgan has spent over 24 years dedicated to the commercial real estate industry. After graduating from University of Colorado at Boulder, she joined SullivanHayes Brokerage focusing on retail, restaurant and hotel brokerage. She expanded into retail and multifamily development and acquisition with REA Development and Southwestern Investment Advisors focusing on the Mountain/Western US markets, while continuing to assist her clients with brokerage services. In 2011, she expanded her area of expertise to include real estate projects involving the energy and oil related industry, mainly in North Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado. Her consulting company, The Morgan Firm also offers consulting and development entitlement services.

She recently returned to SullivanHayes Brokerage focusing on all aspects of commercial retail and restaurant brokerage including; Land Acquisition and Disposition, national and local tenant, landlord and developer representation, multi-store acquisitions, direct leases, subleases, ground leases, build-to-suits and property assemblage. She has represented many national, regional and local tenants strategizing the location of stores in Colorado and across the country.
